RANT LETTERS IN ESTATE OF MURDERED MAN

Other Named Administrator in Estate of Joseph Wicen, Buckingham

THE LANDIS ESTATE

Children Share Real Estate and Money of the Late J. K. Landis

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 2—Letters administration in the estate of Joseph Wicen, Buckingham township, have been granted to a brother, Frank Wicen, of Rushland, Pa., liquidating a personal estate of $400.

Wicen, an ex-GI, was brutally murdered by Alan Black, former convicted seaman, and the exact cause of his death, last July, is not known. Black is now awaiting execution.

Beneficiaries include Wicen's parents, January and Julia; three daughters, Rudolph, Frank and Stephen, and a sister, Julia.
Leaving a personal estate of $400 and real estate valued at $900, Asher M. Haney, Nockamixon township, disinherited one daughter, Clara Longacre, and gave $1.

A daughter, Sadilla Luhrs, who lives in a home on the Ridge road, was directed that she may rebase the house for $2,000. A Norman Haney, was given $500.
An Essex gun, which shall become a family heirloom, was given the oldest son with the stipulation that the gun always be given the next oldest son and never d.

Four heirs, Wyher Haney, Addie Lem, Chester Haney and Sadilla Luhrs, were bequeathed the residency estate. The testator, who died October 10, executed his will on Oct. 11, 1935, and named Addie Luhrs, executrix.

Four children, John A. Landis, Addie Luhrs, Ida, Tobias, Ely-sabeth and Melvin, Annie Miller and Anna Behler, will share in the 6000 estate holdings of John K.
Landis, Perkasio, who died October 1945. Real estate consists of a double lot, 408-410 Arch street, Perkasio, d 1007 Seneca street, Bethlehem, Pa. co-executors are Melvin Landis, 1 South Line street, Lansdale, and J. Landis, 408 Arch street, Perka-sio. The will was executed Feb. 18, 1935.

The widow, Sara Finch Turner, Burgess avenue, Morrisville, Pa., inherits the $400 personal estate of J. William Turner, Falls avenue, who died October 1. The will was written November 1945, stipulating that in the event of the death of the widow a daughter, Susan Carter Turner, should be the heir.

TO AVOID A SLUMP

Paul G. Hoffman, chairman of something which calls itself the Committee for Economic Development—boy, what a job that crowd has blocked out for itself!
—has returned from a sojourn to Europe dripping words of wisdom. Europeans, he said as a starter, take it for granted that this country is bound to have another depression. The only question in their minds, he says, is when it will come. (From their viewpoint this will probably be when the relief stops.)

Mr. Hoffman apparently is not inclined to agree that a major slump is inevitable. Far from being convinced by the forebodings of those he talked with abroad, he looks forward, a la Wallace, to a time when the real income of Americans will be twice what it is now. But he warned, cornily that a steadily expanding economy will be attainable only if measures are taken now to avoid trouble.

Then he goes into a stereotyped harangue about increased production through the cooperation of management, labor and government, correction of irregularities in the flow of materials, prompt adjustment of industrial disputes (Hoffman's company always gives in to the union), corrections of distortions in the wage and price structures—whatever they are—restraint by individuals and business in making deferrable expenditures, and curbs on outlays by government at all levels unless they are clearly necessary for the public welfare.

All this has a hackneyed sound because others have been saying it better for years. And the voters said it better and much more effectively on November 5.

NEW STATE PROSPECTS

There is a prospect that the flag will have 49 or 50 stars, instead of the 48 of recent times, but politics may intrude to defer the step.

Both Hawaii and Alaska are candidates for statehood. Admission can be gained only by act of Congress. After statehood is granted elections are held, a state constitution adopted and officers installed. Should the new Republican Congress grant Hawaii statehood and deny it to Alaska, President Truman might veto the measure because of political considerations. If both were admitted simultaneously, no political advantage would accrue to either party.

The Republican margin in the Senate is so thin—it could easily be wiped out by deaths—that Republicans in Congress are expected to do nothing to lessen their advantage. As a result, the question of adding new states may be passed by. The political angle is that Hawaii has Republican leanings and Alaska Democratic preferences.

The consensus of observers seems to be that no new states will be created until the party has such overwhelming majorities in Congress that a few new Senators and Representatives could not sway control of the legislative branch.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol May 3, 1894. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

The Torresdale Times is authority for the statement that the Morrison Electric Light Co. of Torresdale will shortly build a line from Torresdale through the villages to Bristol. This will enable the residents of all the villages to introduce electric lights in their houses at a very small cost.

Morrisville was all astir on Thursday afternoon the cause of which was the dedication and flag raising on the new school house by the Jr. O. U. A. M. After the dedication song the building was thrown open for inspection by the people.

(Following items from Gazette of May and June, 1894.)

The "Coke Contingent" from down East are expected to pass through Bristol today, on their way to Washington. There are about 60 men in the party. It is said that they are able-bodied workmen, clean and healthy, and not of the tramp order.

The ceremonies connected with laying the corner stone of the new public school building at the corner of Wood and Mulberry streets, were held yesterday afternoon, beginning at five o'clock. The large number of persons in attendance indicated not only their desire to witness the ceremonies of the occasion, but likewise their interest in the welfare and prosperity of our public schools.

The program was announced by Mr. John K. Young, secretary of the school board.

Angus C. York has been awarded the contract for building a two-story brick addition, 15x39 feet, to the hall of Bristol Lodge, No. 25, F. & A. M., to be used as an additional ante room.

The funeral of Anthony Swain was held at his late residence on Radcliffe street yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The directors of the Farmers National Bank, the directors of Bristol Water Co. and directors of the Bristol Gas Light Co. attended in a body. The Bucks Co.
Bar Association was represented.
The remains were interred in the Friends' burying ground.

Charles G. Fetterolf, one of the publishers of the Langhorne Standard, is a candidate for the state legislature from the lower district.

The Leaf Brothers, manufacturers of hosiery, removed their machinery, etc., to Winchester, Va., and will go into business at that place.

Eugene Highland, a well-known resident of Bristol, died suddenly at his home on Cedar street this morning. An hour or so previously he was on the street apparently as well as usual.

Councilman E. M. Wood is a prominent candidate for assembly from the lower end of Bucks County.

The weavers in the mills of E. T.
Steel & Co. on last Monday went on strike.

Fidelity Council, No. 21, Jr. O. U.
A. M., presented a handsome flag yesterday in the Badger School with appropriate ceremonies. The evening address was delivered by Rev.
W. H. Clippman. Mr. Doron Green presented the flag to the school, which was accepted by Mr. R. B. Kelly.

Sheriff Alonzo Nicholas received the warrant for the execution of Wallace Burt, the confessed mur-derer of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L.
Rightley, last Friday. It fixes the date for the Indian's execution on Thursday, July 26, between the hours of 10 in the forenoon and three in the afternoon. The murderer has said all along that he was anxious to die as soon as possible, and has requested that he be told the day as soon as it was fixed.

GLS END SEASON ITH A VICTORY VER WOLVERINES

rd Ward Eleven Defeats eam from Frankford
By 13 to 12 Score

MER WAS THE STAR
itors Had A 6 to 0 Lead At Close of First Quarter

The Third Ward Eagles closed 1946 season with a 13-12 victory over the Frankford Wolverines Friday afternoon on Sullivan's field. The Goodwill Hose Companysponsored team won four games lost two in its first season of play.

Joe Elmer who scored both touchdowns and "Boake" Carter who kicked what proved to be the ling point of the ball game.

Douglas scored the pair of touchdowns credited to the Frankford team, and also with Bill Sims caused Bristol team plenty of headaches with their ball-carrying.

Visitors held a 6-0 lead at the close of the first quarter. The Wolverines started the drive on their left line. They had carried the ball to the Eagles' 10-yard line but the ball on a fumble and recovery by Brady. Brown carried the ball for a 9-yard gain and then passed to Teddy for a first on Eagles' 29. Sims backed up the line 40 and heaved a long pass Brown who was dropped on the ground line. Douglas took the ball and end for a touchdown. The point try by Douglas failed.

The Eagles scored a six-point lead in the second period to tie the count.
Following the breaking up of two plays by Wade and Ennis. Sims led out of bounds on the Eagles'.
Cliver got away on a 15-yard run but the play was recalled on a penalty imposed on Third rd. Elmer passed to Simmons who led to the Frankford 25 where he spralled to Rodgers who scored.
The play was recalled because officials ruled a pass instead of ateral. The Eagles then made a ve of 6 yards to score with Caprii and Carter bearing the brunt of the attack. Elmer skirted end 3 yards to cross the final chalk line. Carter's try for the extra point was blocked.

The Eagles scored quickly in the rd session to take the lead. Sims led to Rodgers who ran the ball midfield to the Wolverines' 30. pass. Rodgers to Len Simmons, was npted on the 15. Holden crashthrough the center of the line a first down on the 4-yard line. ner again carried the ball around it end for a touchdown, making count, 12-6. Carter added the ra counter via placement.

A fumble by "Ed" Capriotti led to the Frankford team's score in the final period. Capriotti fumbled on the 12 and Teddy recovered. After three plays made 6 yards, Douglas faked a line play and went around end for a touchdown.

Mooch's try for the extra point was blocked, making the score, 13-6.

Late in the final session, the Wolverines blocked one of Carter's kicks on the Eagles' 35. Two plays carried the ball to the Warders' 15. A line play netted a 6-yard loss and three forwards were grounded. The Eagles worked the ball for two first downs to the invaders' 44 as the game ended.

Although handicapped by injuries, Joe Roe's boys made 14 first downs while Frankford had 10.

Club Pays Honor To 60 Ex-Servicemen

The Ukrainian-American Citizens Club tendered a banquet and social time to approximately 60 ex-servicemen, members of the club, and their wives, in the club rooms, Fillmore street, Saturday evening.

After partaking of a sumptuous repast, prepared by members of the women's auxiliary, short talks appropriate to the occasion were given by Joseph Osereduk, president of the club; Thomas C. Clarke, Nicholas Masne, Raymond Karajam and Nicholas Masurki.

Mr. Masne then unveiled a large picture of Pfc. Thomas George Clarke, a member of the club who paid the supreme sacrifice in World War II. An account of his death in action in the Battle of the Bulge, as clipped from the Bristol Courier, is attached to the picture, which is inscribed with the words "He died for our freedom." The picture is surrounded by American flags.

A social time followed the unveiling, music for dancing being furnished by an orchestra.

The committee in charge of the affair was composed of: Messrs.
Nicholas Masne, William J. Dougherty, Paul Duda, Michael Duda, Albert Jenigen, Charles Antosh and Raymond Karajam.

car, but the driver of this machine failed to stop. The woman acquaintance of whom Donald had inquired the time, placed her coat about the inert boy, but he died within a few minutes.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Beam, the lad is also survived by three sisters and a brother, Frances, Dolores, Lois and John. His grandmother, Mrs. Julia Beam, resides at West Bristol. The little victim attended a public school in the Frankford section.

The funeral service for Donald will be held at his parents' home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Inman was crossing Jefferson avenue early Saturday evening.
She was walking and was struck by a car operated by Mrs. Joseph Buck, 405 Jefferson avenue, wife of Asst.
Fire Chief Joseph Buck. Mrs.
Buck was driving east on Radcliffe street and making a left turn into Jefferson avenue.

Mrs. Buck took Mrs. Inman to the Harriman Hospital where she was treated.

Officers Vanzant and Dugan, Bristol Police, investigated.
The Bristol man and his brother from Philadelphia were injured when the automobile driven by the latter failed to negotiate a turn on State Road just outside Bristol borough yesterday morning at 1:15.

John B. Sweek, 1522 Barton street, Philadelphia, had laceration of upper lip and bruises of forehead; and Adam Sweek, Green Lane, Bristol, laceration of left ear.
The two were treated at Harriman Hospital.

John Sweek, a veteran of World War II, was driving the car, which was especially equipped for him, he having lost a leg during the war.
He informed Officer Friedrich, of Langhorne barracks, Penna. State Police, that he had had the car only two weeks.

The brothers were travelling east on State Road, and at a curve about 50 feet west of the intersection with Route 413, just a quarter mile from Bristol borough line, John lost control of the car, it is said. The machine skidded and turned on its side, against a pole. Damage is estimated at $600.

The fatal accident at South Langhorne was the third fatal accident since Tuesday night to occur in Lower Bucks County. A pedestrian was fatally hurt Tuesday night on the approach to the Burlington-Bristol bridge, and a Cornwells Heights man was killed at Croydon early Saturday morning.

MISS STEPHANIE MASHTALER AND PATRICK DUNN MARRY
SOUTH LANGHORNE, Dec. 2.—
The marriage of Miss Stephanie Mashtaler, of Main street, Hulme-ville, to Mr. Patrick Dunn, of South Langhorne, took place on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. The Rev.
J. Monaghan officiated at the ceremony in the rectory of Our Lady of Grace R. C. Church, here.

Miss Mashtaler, who has been residing at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Lewis Dunlap, Sr., Hulmeville, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Mashtaler, of Chalfont.

Attendants of the bride and groom were as follows: Matron of honor, Mrs. Eleanor Hutchinson; bridesmaid, Miss Frances Craven; best man, Mr. Frank Martinez; usher, Mr. David McAllister.

A reception took place at the home of the groom's sister in South Langhorne.

The bride and groom will take up residence here following their return in one week from Stone Harbor, N. J.

Colored Man is Fourth Murder Victim in County

Detective Anthony Russo. The story the police learned and as related by them is that, Fleming, Johnson, Koonce and the Davis woman visited a taproom on Warren street in Trenton during the afternoon. Then at about five o'clock the group hailed a taxi and drove to the Starkey place. Upon their arrival Johnson is stated to have said that he would pay the fare of himself, Fleming and Mrs. Davis. To this Koonce is said to have objected, saying that he would pay the fare of Mrs. Davis.

Koonce says Johnson struck him and pulled out a penknife. Koonce then allegedly unsheathed a broccol knife and Fleming went to the rescue of Johnson. Koonce made a dash at Johnson, missed, and turned around and stabbed Fleming.

The taxi left with the group arguing.
Fleming was stabbed on the left side just below the neck and fell on the porch of the "Big House." Blood flowed from the gapping wound.

Police took Koonce, Johnson and Mrs. Davis to police headquarters here and placed them in private cells.

Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby had the body removed to the Hooper morgue in Morrisville.

Two of the other three murder cases in Bucks County this year are scheduled to go on trial at the term of criminal court opening today.
The other case was that of Aaron Shelton, Jr., colored, Langhorne, charged with the slaying of Mrs.
Gladys Shetland, a white woman, of Langhorne. Shelton is now serving a life term.

Serving Mr. DiGiuseppe as best man was Mr. Frank Ricardi, Trenton, N. J.

A group of 150 guests was entertained in Mutual Aid Hall at the evening reception.

Leaving for a week's honeymoon in New York, N. Y., the bride wore a poudre blue suit, beaver coat and hat, brown accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The newlyweds will make their home in Trenton.

Miss Stephanie Mashtaler And Patrick Dunn Marry

The marriage of Miss Stephanie Mashtaler, of Main street, Hulme-
ville, to Mr. Patrick Dunn, of South
Langhorne, took place on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. The Rev.
J. Monaghan officiated at the ceremony in the rectory of Our Lady of Grace R. C. Church, here.

Miss Mashtaler, who has been residing at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Lewis Dunlap, Sr., Hulmeville, is
the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Mashtaler, of Chalfont.

Attendants of the bride and groom
were as follows: Matron of honor, Mrs. Eleanor Hutchinson; brides-
man, Mr. Frank Martinez; usher,
Mr. David McAllister.

A reception took place at the home of the groom's sister in South Langhorne.

The bride and groom will take up
residence here following their return in one week from Stone Harbor, N. J.

LADY'S ARM WAS BENT UP DOUBLE LIKE A JACK-KNIFE

One lady recently stated that her arm used to become doubled up like a jack-knife. She couldn't move her arm up or down because her muscles were stiff with rheumatic pains and the joints of her elbow and shoulder were swollen. She said she was ashamed to leave her house because people would stare at her.
Finally she got RHEU-AID and says she now can raise her arm above her head and the swelling left her elbow and shoulder. The awful pain and stiffness is gone. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this New Compound.

RHEU-AID contains Three Great Medicinal Ingredients which go right to the very source of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over.
So don't go on suffering! Get RHEU-AID. Sold by All Drug Stores here in Bristol. (Advertisement).

Minerva Smith, Doylestown, spent the holiday and week-end with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Smith, Wiley Smith and Harvey Linsinbiger, of the Overbrook School for the Blind, also passed the holidays at their homes here.

Miss Adeline E. Reetz had her tonsils removed, the operation being performed in Philadelphia on Saturday.

The date set for the Christmas entertainment of Neshaminy Methodist Sunday School is Thursday evening, December 26th. The choir of the church plans a party on Thursday evening of this week in the church social hall.

Mrs. Walter Jackson will have as

Miss Dorothy Robinson Is Wed To Howard N. Ashton

The Bristol Methodist Church was the scene of an attractive wedding Saturday at 2:30 p.m. when Miss Dorothy Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, Edgely avenue, Edgely, became the wife of Mr. Howard N. Ashton, son of Mr. L. A. Ashton, Trenton, N. J. The Rev. W. E. Preston Haas officiated, with the bride's father giving her in marriage at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Winifred V. Tracy, Buckley street, presided at the organ console, playing the bridal marches and accompanying Mr. Earl Baker, Trenton, N. J., who sang, "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "Oh Promise Me."

The former Miss Robinson wore a gown of ivory toned satin, and the full skirt swept to a long train. The gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice buttoned down the back with satin covered buttons and had long bell sleeves tapering over the hands. Her headpiece of white sequins held a long net veil trimmed with Venetian lace. She wore a string of pearls. White satin slippers completed her costume, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses and baby breath.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary Robinson, Edgely, sister of the bride, wore a yellow gown with a sweetheart neckline, satin fitted bodice buttoned down the back, long pointed sleeves and full taffeta skirt. She wore silver slippers and carried an arm bouquet of orchid chrysanthemums. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Jennie Boff, Modena, who chose blue and carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums; Miss "Betty" Ashton, Trenton, N. J., sister of the groom, who wore orchid and also carried yellow chrysanthemums; and Miss Gladys Booz, Edgely, who wore peach and carried orchid 'mums. Their gowns were similar in design to that of the maid of honor, and had side pleats. All wore silver slippers.

The junior bridesmaids were Miss "Betty" Bowman, Edgely, and Miss Anna Marie Rago, Bristol, who wore jungle green gowns patterned alike, with sweetheart necklines, fluted pleats at the hipline, short sleeves and floor-length taffeta skirts. Both wore white slippers. Miss Bowman carried an arm bouquet of orchid 'mums, while Miss Rago carried yellow. The bridesmaids wore headpieces of flowers corresponding to their gowns with tulle veils.

Dorothy Ann Robinson, niece of the bride, who served as flower girl, was attired in a pink taffeta gown with a sweetheart neckline of illusion net, pointed bodice and full skirt. She wore white slippers and flowers in her hair and carried a basket of pink roses.

Mr. Jack Bradford, Modena, was the best man, and the ushers were inclusive of Messrs. Samuel Watson and Howard Cook, Morrisville, and William Claus, Jr., Bristol.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bride, chose a brown crepe dress with gold trim and brown accessories, and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

A reception was held at the Odd Fellows Hall, with covers laid for approximately 125 guests.

Following a honeymoon trip to the Pocono Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Ashton will reside with the bride's parents.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Walter F. Humphrey Pastor
Neshaminy Methodist Church
Hulmeville

Heavenly Father we thank Thee for this another day of life. May we begin it with a realization of Thy presence. May we acknowledge Thee and allow Thee to direct our paths. Keep us true to Thee. Increase our faith, and guide our every thought, word, and deed. Prepare us to meet any trials or temptations which may assail and make us worthy of Thy protecting care. Help us to serve Thee in humility and thankfulness. This we ask in Thy Son's name. Amen.

ST. ANN'S LOSES FIRST GAME OF THE GRID SEASON

Bristol Eleven Loses To Bridesburg by Score of 16 to 6

OUT OF THE PLAYOFFS

Strong Aerial Attack By Winners Gains Victory For Them

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—(Defeat for the first time this season, St. Ann's A. A. was eliminated from the playoffs of the Northeast Conference by a determined Bridesburg A. A. eleven yesterday afternoon at the Cantoria Stadium before a crowd of 5,000.

A strong aerial attack by the Bridesburg team after they failed to penetrate the St. Ann's line of granite gave the winners enough points to score a 16-6 victory. St. Ann's gained more yardage through scrambling but they could not in any way cope with the air attack of the Bridesburg boys.

Leading the ozone attack was "Johnny" Eckert who playing for Northeast Catholic last season was chosen as the All-Scholastic half-back of Philadelphia. Eckert's passing was expertly done. He picked out his receivers and shot the ball to them in professional style. The receivers hardly had to lift their hands to catch the piskin as Johnny was whipping them all afternoon.

While offensively, Eckert was outstanding, St. Ann's had an end in "Mooney" Denny who was continually breaking up the Bridesburg line plays. But Denny was in no position to stop the airborne attack so the Purple and Gold went down to its first loss in 12 starts. Denny also made a leaping catch of a forward pass in the third quarter that almost led to another St. Ann's touchdown.

Bridesburg had the most first downs, making 12 while holding the "Saints" to 7. The winners were aided by the kicking of George Kelley whose punts kept St. Ann's in their own territory. On one occasion, Kelley stood on his 20-yard line and kicked beyond the St. Ann's end zone, the ball traveling 70 yards in the air.

The Saints appeared to be headed for a victory when it scored its only touchdown midway in the first session. Following the kickoff which Baurath carried to the 42, Merritt and Schreiner hit the line for first downs on the Bridesburg 43. But the attack soon died as D'Ambrosio intercepted a pass on his 35. Kelley returned the punt to the St. Ann's 32 after his team was penalized 15 yards. Chichiletti and Merritt hit the line for first downs to mid-field. But Bridesburg again held and Merritt booted out on the 28. Bridesburg made a first down but "Jim" Spencer intercepted a pass on his 40. After Spencer knocked off two yards, Baurath passed to Schreiner who caught the ball on the 50 and raced the remaining distance to score. Sak failed in attempting to add the extra point.

Following a pass interception by Stan Lelinski on the St. Ann's 45, the Saints made another drive which ended when Kelley intercepted a pass on his 30. Here Bridesburg went to work. A short pass and two line plays by Eckert and Kelley gave them a first on their 40. With H. Lukazewski lugging the ball, they reached the St. Ann's 48. From here, Eckert passed to Steve Kaczorowski for another first down. Lukazewski hit the line twice for another first down and after two more line plays failed to gain. Eckert passed to Kaczorowski for a touchdown on the right side of the field. Andrews missed the extra point try.

Following the touchdown and kickoff, Schreiner got away for a 30-yard run to mid-field but the play recalled and St. Ann's penalized 15 yards. Chichiletti kicked to mid-field and on the first place, Eckert passed to Kaczorowski who was thrown out of bounds on the three-yard line by Chichiletti. The Bridesburg team lost ground in three tries and on the fourth down, "Teddy" Andrews was sent in to try for a field goal. With the short field as an aid, he booted the ball between the uprights for a three-pointer, making the score, 6-0.

St. Ann's shoved Bridesburg back to its three-yard line in the third quarter but a penalty hurt as Kelley followed with a kick to the St. Ann's 39. Schreiner made 11 yards on a play but fumbled and Burzy recovered for the ultimate winners. The "Saints" got a break when Schreiner ran back a kick to the Bridesburg 48. On the first play, Chichiletti passed to Denny for a first down on Bridesburg 35. Spencer cracked the line for 9 yards and DeMido made it a first on the 23. But the drive came to a halt when Persoski intercepted a pass and ran to his 32.

The Bridesburg team scored again with less than 3 minutes to play. They started the drive on their 39. A pass, Eckert to Nowicki was completed for 13 yards. After a line play was stopped by Profy, Eckert passed to Mulhern for a first down on the St. Ann's 28. Another first down was registered on the 17 and after that Buzby caught a pass from Eckert for the touchdown, with Andrews added the extra point, making the final count, 16-6.

Between halves, Northeast Conference trophies were awarded to St. Ann's, Tacony Boys' Club, Bridesburg, and Olney Vets. Tony Angelo received the St. Ann's trophy with Frank Sabatino getting Tacony's. The Bridesburg trophy was awarded to Coach Joe Neiman, Temple University backfield star, while Bill Gilbert received the one for the Olney Vets.

In the final conference game next Sunday, Tacony Boys' Club will meet Bridesburg. Tacony beat Olney Vets, 10-0, yesterday.

Coach "Pete" Borne announced last night that St. Ann's will play either Roehling A. A. or Mt. Holly A. A. next Sunday in the closing game of the season.

YOUTH LEAGUE TO OPEN BASKETBALL SEASON TONIGHT

Games To Be Played On The Floor of Mutual Aid Hall

TAP-OFF TO BE AT 7.30

Burgess Schmidt is Booked To Toss Out The First Ball

The opening games of the Bristol Youth Basketball League will be played on the Mutual Aid floor tonight with the Third Ward team meeting the Celtics and Harriman playing Galzerano's. Opening tap-off takes place at 7.30 o'clock.

The first ball will be tossed up by Burgess Jacob C. Schmidt, Sr., with the American Legion Cadets parading and drilling. Ralph Palladino, president, will act as master of ceremonies.

The Third Ward Eagles is under the management of Jesse Vanant, while Vito Della pilots the Celtics. Dick Brown is in charge of the activities of the Harriman team while John Cordisco handles the destinies of the Galzerano Fifth Ward aggregation.

Other teams in the eight-team loop are: Hibernians, St. Ann's, Keystone Oil, and the American Legion. These four teams will swing into action on Thursday night.

The age limit of the circuit is 19 and players who participate in other leagues or high schools are barred. The boundary limit is the borough of Bristol and also Bristol township. A player must participate in four games to be eligible for the playoffs and play in at least one.
